

3.D. THE PERIOD UNTIL THE CONTINENTAL SYSTEM 1803 - 1806

ENGLAND - GERMANY

Depending on weather or war circumstances different ports were used by the English packet boats. From April 1806 until April 1807, Husum was used again as connection with Harwich.

1 April 1806 London - Berlin

Postage paid in London
according to the British tariff of March 1805:
3/- (3 shilling) for a double letter
from England → Northern Europe (written pd 3/ in the upper right corner and the under left corner).

Postage due in Berlin
9 1/2 Gute Groschen
for a double letter
(3 skilling Husum → Hamburg).

Route: London - Harwich - Husum - Hamburg - Berlin